Jonathan, I may have been unclear with my previous email.

We are not looking for an office manager.

We are looking for a bank liaison, personal financial advisor and as well as any other jobs Suz may have been doing.

Thanks again,
Sherry

Subject: RE: Question

Sherry and David thanks for the email at this time I do not have any names of office managers that are looking, but will put out a feeler to see what we can find out about names to offer any assistance.

As we have spoken about in the past any new person you would want to have defined clear roles and expertise and what you want them to do. I think that is the issue at the moment is that lots of changes have happened over the past 2 years with the business all positive but some growing pains around duties/roles/responsibilities.

Glad to discuss more if you want to both discuss.

Importance: High

Hi Jonathan, hope your summer is going well.

For some time now there has been a great deal of tension between Suzanne Nagelski and myself. This is due to a great lack of transparency about how she actually functions on our business and personal financial behalves.

Is there anyone that you might recommend to us to step into her role/position should we decide to make a change.

Regards,

Sherry Spivey
